The Bilbao Manifesto

For a Sovereign Europe and a New Euro–Asian Alliance

Part I — Preamble and Foundational Principles

Preamble

Europe stands at a historical crossroads.

For centuries, this continent has been the cradle of law, reason, science, and culture—from Ancient Greece and Ancient Rome to the Enlightenment and modern science. Yet in the present geopolitical order, Europe no longer speaks with a sovereign voice. Its security, strategic decisions, and global posture remain structurally subordinated to external powers.

This condition is incompatible with Europe' s history, responsibility, and future.

The world has entered a phase of systemic instability driven by unipolar dominance, permanent militarization, and recurring wars justified as "security management." This model has failed. It generates conflict, not stability; dependence, not cooperation.

Europe must choose:

remain a strategic protectorate, or recover full sovereignty.

The Bilbao Manifesto affirms that European sovereignty is non-negotiable and that a new global equilibrium is both possible and necessary.

The Core Decision

Europe shall initiate a coordinated withdrawal from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and shall work toward the creation of a new comprehensive alliance with the People' s Republic of China.

This alliance shall be:

- Military (defensive only)
- Economic
- Social

- Technological and scientific

Its purpose is not domination, but structural peace.

Why NATO Is No Longer Compatible with Europe

NATO was born in a different century, under different conditions. Today:

- It subordinates European strategic autonomy to non-European political cycles and leadership.
- It ties Europe to permanent confrontation dynamics that do not serve European interests.
- It prevents Europe from acting as an independent civilizational actor.
- It exposes Europe to instability generated by internal politics of external states.

A continent of 450 million citizens, advanced industry, culture, and science cannot remain militarily tutored without renouncing its historical role.

Leaving NATO is not an act of hostility. It is an act of political adulthood.

The Euro–Chinese Strategic Axis

China is not merely an economic power. It is a civilization-state with millennia of continuity, long-term strategic thinking, and a cultural emphasis on balance, stability, and collective prosperity.

An alliance between Europe and China would unite:

- Europe's legal rationality, scientific tradition, and cultural plurality
- China's scale, continuity, industrial capacity, and long-term planning

Together, Europe and China form a continental mass—demographic, industrial, scientific, and technological—that is structurally invulnerable to external coercion.

This axis would not be ideological. It would be civilizational and pragmatic.

Military Doctrine: Peace by Design

The proposed alliance establishes a strictly defensive military doctrine based on:

- Territorial defense
- Anti-missile and space security
- Cyber-defense
- Protection of continental infrastructure and trade routes

No regime-change wars. No external interventions. No export of instability. Deterrence exists only to prevent war, not to wage it.

The End of the War Paradigm

Under the current global order, war has become:

- Normalized
- Economically incentivized
- Politically instrumentalized

The Euro–Chinese alliance proposes a different model:

- Security through balance
- Prosperity through cooperation
- Innovation through shared scientific progress

Russia ceases to be framed as an existential enemy once Europe exits confrontation architectures designed elsewhere. Tensions are replaced by continental equilibrium.

Bilbao as a Symbolic Origin

Bilbao represents:

- Industrial transformation
- Cultural renewal
- Atlantic–Eurasian connection
- A Europe that rebuilds itself without renouncing its soul

This Manifesto is launched from Bilbao not as a local act, but as a continental signal.

Closing of Part I

This document is not utopian. It is structural. It is designed for a multi-polar, post-hegemonic world.

Europe must once again decide its own destiny.

Part II — Legal, Economic, and Scientific Architecture

Legal Sovereignty and International Law

The foundation of this project is law, not force.

Europe shall reaffirm its commitment to:

- The United Nations Charter
- Sovereignty of states
- Non-intervention
- Peaceful resolution of disputes

Withdrawal from NATO shall be conducted in full compliance with international and domestic legal procedures, preserving stability during the transition.

A new Euro–Chinese Treaty of Cooperation shall be established under public international law, registered and transparent, with clear dispute-resolution mechanisms and mutual guarantees.

Law is not an obstacle to sovereignty. It is its instrument.

Economic Architecture: From Dependency to Production

Europe's current economic weakness is not lack of capacity, but misaligned structures.

The alliance proposes:

- A continental production strategy (industry, energy, materials)
- Long-term investment coordination
- Secure supply chains independent of coercive leverage
- Strategic infrastructure shared across Eurasia

A neutral settlement and compensation system shall be created for strategic trade, insulating essential exchanges from external financial pressure.

This is not autarky. It is resilience.

Social Dimension: Prosperity Without Militarization

The new alliance rejects the doctrine that security requires permanent war readiness.

Instead, resources shall be redirected toward:

- Public health
- Education
- Housing
- Scientific employment
- Demographic stability

Security is not measured by weapons stockpiles alone, but by social cohesion and material dignity.

A peaceful continent is a strong continent.

Scientific and Technological Alliance

Science shall be treated as a civilizational common good, not as a weapon.

Joint programs shall focus on:

- Energy (fusion, advanced renewables, storage)
- New materials
- Climate adaptation
- Medical research
- Artificial intelligence under human governance
- Space for civilian and scientific purposes

Intellectual property shall be protected through clear bilateral frameworks, with shared ownership for joint discoveries.

Europe contributes rigor and critical method. China contributes scale and continuity. Together, acceleration replaces rivalry.

Cultural Convergence, Not Uniformity

This alliance does not require cultural homogenization.

Europe remains plural, democratic, and diverse. China remains sovereign in its historical path.

The common ground is:

- Respect
- Long-term thinking
- Collective responsibility
- Rejection of nihilistic power politics

Civilizations can cooperate without dissolving.

Transitional Timeline (Indicative)

- Years 1–2: Political declaration, legal audits, dependency mapping
- Years 3–5: Defense autonomy buildup, treaty ratification, pilot programs
- Years 6–10: Full operational sovereignty, alliance consolidation

Gradualism is strength. Abrupt rupture is avoided by design.

Message to the World

This initiative is not anti-American. It is pro-European and pro-human.

A mature world requires multiple stable centers, not a single nervous hegemon.

Europe does not seek to replace one tutelage with another. It seeks partnership among equals.

Closing of Part II

The Bilbao Manifesto is a proposal for structural peace.

Not idealism. Not submission. Design.

Europe must remember who it is in order to decide who it becomes.

Part III — Governance, Defense Structure, and Final Declaration

Governance of the Alliance

The Euro–Asian Alliance shall be governed by parity, transparency, and veto symmetry.

Institutions:

- Council of Strategic Parity: equal representation; unanimity required for security decisions.
- Scientific and Technological Assembly: civilian-led, mission-oriented programs.
- Economic Coordination Board: long-term investment, infrastructure, and supply security.
- Legal Arbitration Chamber: binding dispute resolution under public international law.

No party may impose decisions unilaterally. Power is constrained by design.

European Defense After Withdrawal

Europe shall establish a fully autonomous European Defense Structure with the following characteristics:

- Integrated continental command
- Independent intelligence and satellite capacity
- Cyber and space defense as core layers
- Defensive force posture only
- Civilian democratic oversight

Defense is European, not outsourced. Security serves citizens, not external agendas.

Neutrality Toward External Power Rivalries

The Alliance adopts strategic non-alignment in extra-continental conflicts.

- No proxy wars
- No ideological crusades
- No forced bloc discipline

Europe and China commit to continental stability first, global cooperation second, and confrontation never.

This is the end of automatic alignment. Each decision is deliberate.

Ethical Foundation

The Alliance rests on three shared principles:

- Long-term responsibility over short-term dominance
- Collective stability over zero-sum competition
- Human development over permanent militarization

Power without ethics destroys itself. Ethics without power is ignored. This alliance integrates both.

Address to European Citizens

This project is not imposed. It requires democratic ratification, public debate, and constitutional procedures.

European citizens are not children to be "protected." They are adults capable of deciding their future.

Sovereignty begins with choice.

Address to China

Europe approaches China as an equal civilization, not as a subordinate, adversary, or tool.

The proposal is partnership, not absorption. Stability, not dominance. Continuity, not rupture.

History judges those who choose balance when chaos is profitable.

Final Declaration

From Bilbao, Europe declares:

- The era of strategic tutelage is over.
- The era of unipolar militarism is ending.
- A continental, peaceful, and sovereign future is possible.

This Manifesto does not promise ease. It promises dignity, voice, and responsibility.

Europe was born from thought, law, and culture. It shall not end as a dependency.

The Bilbao Manifesto — Closed

A sovereign Europe.
A balanced world.
Peace by structure, not by force.

毕尔巴鄂宣言

为一个主权欧洲与新的欧亚联盟

第一部分——序言与基本原则

序言

欧洲正站在一个历史性的十字路口。

数百年来，这片大陆一直是法律、理性、科学与文化的摇篮——从古希腊与古罗马，到启蒙时代以及现代科学。然而，在当今的地缘政治秩序中，欧洲已不再以主权之声发言。其安全、战略决策与全球立场，在结构上仍然从属于外部力量。

这种状态与欧洲的历史、责任以及未来是不相容的。

世界已经进入一个由单极主导、持续军事化以及以“安全管理”为名的反复战争所驱动的系统性不稳定阶段。这一模式已经失败。它制造冲突，而非稳定；制造依赖，而非合作。

欧洲必须作出选择：

继续作为一个战略性的被保护体，还是重新获得完全主权。

《毕尔巴鄂宣言》确认，欧洲主权不可谈判，并且一个新的全球均衡既是可能的，也是必要的。

核心决定

欧洲应当启动一项协调一致的、退出北大西洋公约组织的进程，并致力于建立一个与中华人民共和国之间新的、全面性的联盟。

该联盟应当包括：

- 军事（仅限防御性质）
- 经济
- 社会
- 科技与科学

其目标不是支配，而是结构性的和平。

为何北约已不再与欧洲相容

北约诞生于另一个世纪、在完全不同的历史条件之下。今天：

- 它将欧洲的战略自主性从属于非欧洲的政治周期与领导结构。
- 它将欧洲绑定于永久性的对抗性动态之中，而这些动态并不服务于欧洲的利益。
- 它阻止欧洲作为一个独立的文明行为体行事。
- 它使欧洲暴露于由外部国家内部政治所产生的不稳定之中。

一个拥有四亿五千万公民、具备先进工业、文化与科学能力的大陆，不可能在持续的军事监护之下生存而不放弃其历史角色。

退出北约并非敌对行为。它是一种政治成熟的体现。

欧中战略轴心

中国不仅仅是一个经济强国。它是一个文明型国家，拥有数千年的连续性、长期战略思维，以及对平衡、稳定与共同繁荣的文化重视。

欧洲与中国之间的联盟将融合：

- 欧洲的法律理性、科学传统与文化多元性
- 中国的规模、连续性、工业能力与长期规划

欧洲与中国共同构成一个大陆级整体——在人口、工业、科学与技术层面——这一整体在结构上不受外部胁迫的影响。

这一轴心并非意识形态性的。它是文明性的，也是务实的。

军事原则：以设计实现和平

该联盟确立了一种严格防御性的军事原则，其基础包括：

- 国土防御
- 反导与太空安全
- 网络防御
- 大陆基础设施与贸易通道的保护

不进行政权更迭战争。不进行外部干预。不输出不稳定。

威慑的存在仅用于防止战争，而非发动战争。

战争范式的终结

在当前的全球秩序之下，战争已经变得：

- 常态化
- 被经济激励
- 被政治工具化

欧中联盟提出了一种不同的模式：

- 通过平衡实现安全
- 通过合作实现繁荣
- 通过共享的科学进步实现创新

当欧洲退出由外部设计的对抗性架构之后，俄罗斯将不再被塑造成一种生存性敌人。紧张关系将被大陆层面的均衡所取代。

毕尔巴鄂作为象征性的起点

毕尔巴鄂象征着：

- 工业转型
- 文化复兴
- 大西洋—欧亚的连接
- 一个在重建自身的同时不放弃其灵魂的欧洲

本宣言自毕尔巴鄂发布，并非一次地方性行为，而是一个大陆级信号。

第一部分结语

本文件并非乌托邦式的构想。它是结构性的。它是为一个多极的、后霸权时代的世界而设计的。

欧洲必须再次决定自身的命运。

第二部分——法律、经济与科学架构

法律主权与国际法

本项目的基础是法律，而非武力。

欧洲将重申其对以下原则的承诺：

- 《联合国宪章》
- 国家主权
- 不干涉原则
- 争端的和平解决

欧洲退出北约的进程应当完全遵循国际法与国内法程序进行，以在过渡期间维护稳定。

一项新的欧中合作条约应当在国际公法框架下建立，进行正式登记并保持透明，具备清晰的争端解决机制与相互保障。

法律不是主权的障碍。它是主权的工具。

经济架构：从依赖走向生产

欧洲当前的经济脆弱性并非源于能力不足，而是源于结构性错配。

该联盟提出：

- 一项大陆级生产战略（工业、能源、材料）
- 长期投资协调机制
- 独立于强制性施压手段之外的安全供应链
- 横跨欧亚大陆的共享战略基础设施

应当建立一套中立的结算与补偿体系，用于战略性贸易，以使关键交换免受外部金融压力的影响。

这不是自给自足。这是韧性。

社会维度：没有军事化的繁荣

新的联盟拒绝将安全建立在永久战争准备之上的理念。

相反，资源应当被重新导向：

- 公共卫生
- 教育
- 住房
- 科研就业
- 人口结构稳定

安全不仅仅通过武器储备来衡量，而是通过社会凝聚力与物质尊严来体现。

一个和平的大陆，才是一个强大的大陆。

科学与技术联盟

科学应当被视为一种文明层面的公共财富，而非武器。

联合项目应当聚焦于：

- 能源（核聚变、先进可再生能源、储能）
- 新材料
- 气候适应
- 医学研究
- 置于人类治理之下的人工智能
- 用于民用与科学目的的太空

知识产权应通过清晰的双边框架加以保护，对联合发现实行共享所有权。

欧洲贡献严谨性与批判性方法。中国贡献规模与连续性。二者结合，以加速取代竞争。

文化趋同，而非同质化

该联盟并不要求文化同质化。

欧洲保持其多元性、民主性与多样性。中国在其历史道路上保持主权。

共同基础在于：

- 尊重
- 长期思维
- 集体责任
- 拒绝虚无主义的权力政治

不同文明可以在不彼此消解的情况下开展合作。

过渡时间表（指示性）

- 第 1–2 年：政治声明、法律审计、依赖关系梳理
- 第 3–5 年：防务自主能力建设、条约批准、试点项目
- 第 6–10 年：完全可运行的主权体系、联盟整合

渐进性即力量。通过设计避免突兀的断裂。

致世界的声明

本倡议并非反美。它是亲欧洲的，也是亲人类的。

一个成熟的世界需要多个稳定中心，而非一个神经紧张的霸权。

欧洲并不寻求以另一种监护关系取代既有监护。它追求的是平等主体之间的伙伴关系。

第二部分结语

《毕尔巴鄂宣言》是一项关于结构性和平的提案。

不是理想主义。不是屈从。设计。

欧洲必须记住自己是谁，才能决定将成为什么样的存在。

第三部分——治理、国防结构与最终宣言

联盟的治理

欧亚联盟将以平等、透明与否决权对称为治理原则。

机构设置：

- 战略平等理事会：平等代表；安全决策需一致同意。
- 科学与技术大会：由民间主导、以任务为导向的项目。
- 经济协调委员会：长期投资、基础设施与供应安全。
- 法律仲裁机构：依据国际公法进行具有约束力的争端解决。

任何一方不得单方面强加决策。权力在设计上即受到约束。

退出后的欧洲防务

欧洲应建立一个完全自主的欧洲防务体系，其特征包括：

- 一体化的大陆级指挥体系
- 独立的情报与卫星能力
- 将网络与太空防御作为核心层级
- 仅限防御性的武力态势
- 文职民主监督

防务是欧洲的，而非外包的。安全服务于公民，而非外部议程。

对外部大国竞争的中立立场

该联盟在洲外冲突中采取战略性不结盟立场。

- 不进行代理人战争
- 不发动意识形态远征
- 不强制执行阵营纪律

欧洲与中国承诺：以大陆稳定为先，其次是全球合作，永不选择对抗。
这是自动结盟时代的终结。每一项决策都是经过审慎选择的。

伦理基础

该联盟建立在三项共同原则之上：

- 长期责任高于短期支配
- 集体稳定高于零和竞争
- 人类发展高于永久军事化

没有伦理的权力将自我毁灭。没有权力的伦理将被忽视。该联盟将二者加以整合。

致欧洲公民

本项目并非强加于人。它需要民主批准、公共辩论以及宪法程序。
欧洲公民不是需要被“保护”的儿童。他们是能够决定自身未来的成年人。
主权始于选择。

致中国

欧洲以平等文明的身份接近中国，而非作为附属、对手或工具。
该提案追求的是伙伴关系，而非吞并。稳定，而非支配。延续，而非断裂。
历史将评判那些在混乱有利可图之时仍选择平衡的人。

最终宣言

自毕尔巴鄂起，欧洲宣布：

- 战略监护的时代已经结束。
- 单极军事主义的时代正在终结。
- 一个大陆性的、和平的、有主权的未来是可能的。

本宣言不承诺轻松。它承诺的是尊严、话语权与责任。
欧洲诞生于思想、法律与文化之中。它不应以依附告终。

《毕尔巴鄂宣言》——终

一个有主权的欧洲。
一个平衡的世界。
以结构实现和平，而非以武力。
